- b) creation of a full-time position that absorbs existing courses taught by adjunct faculty members;
- c) cancellation of a course due to under-enrollment, as determined by the College in its discretion, except that the cancellation of a course in a semester shall not impact a faculty member's other assignments;

- d) unsatisfactory performance of an employee, as evidenced by classroom observations, student evaluations, or the faculty member's failure to correct a performance problem identified by the Provost, department chair, or Dean, except that student evaluations alone shall not be used as the exclusive basis to deny, reduce or cancel a faculty member's assignment(s);

A reasonable effort will be made to encourage eligible Adjunct faculty to continue their professional development in their area of academic focus. An Adjunct faculty member is eligible to seek approval for professional development after two (2) semesters of teaching at Raritan Valley Community College. Forms for approval for professional development are available online or can be requested from the Provost/Vice President of Academic Affairs.
